It delivered 76.55% of its maximum belt power to the Drawbar.

It delivered one HORSE POWER at the drawbar for each 168 lbs. of its Lincoln Test Weight (4523 lbs.)

It developed 87.68 horse power with each U.S. gallon of the United Church, Carbon, on Monday at 4 p.m. and the large crowd both at the church and the teem in which the boy was held in

BRANCH OF CANADIAN LE- GION FORMED AT HESKETH

Lowering skies and a driving rain, swept in from the northwest by a piercing wind, roads fast developing impassable conditions, these things and more did not prevent some of the faithful attending the meeting in the Community hall at Hesketh on Saturday evening, when Capt. S. N. Dancey completed the organization of a branch of the Canadian Legion to serve the district of Carbon.

Suggestions that separate units be organized for both Carbon and Hesketh were unanimously voted down and it was decided to go ahead with the district organization.

Friday evening, June 1st, was chosen as the date for a big social get together when all returned men of the district, together with their friends, will gather in the Community Hall at Hesketh, for the purpose of putting the finishing touches on the organization. A committee was named to take charge of arrangements with Harry Dewar as chairman. The committee is made up of Mrs. Heath, Mrs. Walker and Messrs. Alfred Poile, Melville Ashton, R.W. Hunter, Jos. Mos-ton, W.E. Walker, A. J. Everett, Jose Church, A. Church and D.K.
Edmundson.

Indications point to a live progressive organization of returned men in the Carbon district and the first big social get together of this new branch of the Canadian Legion will be graced by the presence of several of the provincial leaders of the organization. There will also be a musical program, an informal dance and refreshments.—Drum-heller Review.

The first meeting of the Carbon Lodge No. 195, B.P.O. Elks, takes place tonight in the Masonic Hall.

5 P.C. DISCOUNT ON VILLAGE TAXES

The regular meeting of the Village council was held on Monday night, May 7, Councillors J. A.
MacDonald, S. J. Garrett and W.
A. Braisher being present.

It was decided to give a discount of 5 per cent on all taxes paid before June 30, with the exception of the business tax.

The accounts passed for payment were to Jas. Ramsay for 150 feet of swing bridge, and to the Crown lumber Co. for lumber used on the foot bridge.

As it was deemed that the old swing bridge was unsafe for traffic the Council decided to call for tenders to tear it down.

A letter was read from the Three Hills council stating that Mr.
Fruyk had been receiving relief since April 27, and Mr. Greenan was instructed to communicate with the Three Hills council and inform them that the Carbon Village dis-claimed any responsibility for further relief.

Word was received in Carbon last Thursday morning that D. F.
McKinnon, an old resident of Carbon who had just recently gone to the Peace River country, had died in the Grand Prairie hospital after an operation for appendicitis. Mr.
McKinnon had suffered from attacks of appendicitis before he left Carbon and apparently the case was left too long, for when he was admitted to the hospital there was little hope for his recovery. Mr.
McKinnon's death came as a shock to Carbonites and the people of this district extend their heartfelt sympathy to the only surviving member of the family, Rudolph, who was with his father at the time of his death.

Interment was made in the Grand Prairie cemetery on Saturday, May 5th.

Who Wants War?

The statement has been made so frequently, and with such vigor that it is the capitalist class of the world which has been responsible for war between nations, that many people have become convinced of its truth. And it is probably true that some of the wars of the past have been the direct result of greedy men seeking to further their own selfish ends. To what extent capitalists have been responsible for past wars it would be difficult to say, but, with the experience of the last Great War, and the disastrous effects on industry and world commerce which resulted, both during the continuance of the conflict and in the years that have followed, it is safe to say that Capital has learned its lesson, and today the whole influence of the financial and industrial world is thrown into the scale in favor of continuing Peace.

A strange picture is, however, presented by the one country in which those who are loudest in their outcry against the capitalist class are in full control, namely, Russia. In no other country is Capital so strongly denounced as in Soviet Russia. The Soviet leaders regard Capital as the source of all the world's difficulties and sorrows. At its door they lay the major crimes of the world. The revolution under Lenin and Trotsky had for its object, not the overthrow of the Czarist Government, for it had already fallen, but the overthrow and complete destruction of Capital, and in their campaign against the capitalist system they held it to be responsible for war and the sufferings and losses which war always entails.

Today, however, under the leadership of the Soviet, Russia is the most militaristic country in the world,—the one chief place of danger to the peace of the world. Recently a first-hand picture of the military spirit of Russia was given by one who is friendly to the professed ideals of the Soviet, Mr. William Wellock, Socialist M.P. for the Stourbridge Division of Worcestershire, England, in the British Parliament. He makes some interesting disclosures in a recent article on "Soviet Russia of Today," which appeared in a recent issue of the "Socialist Review." There he admits that the Soviet dictatorship "possesses, even boasts of, a most efficient Secret Service, and is responsible for creating a military spirit that gives one food for reflection."

Moreover, he says, "Girls as well as boys are learning to handle rifles, and girls' corps for this purpose are being formed in those otherwise excellent institutions, workers' or trade union clubs. Indeed, except during the World War, I have never seen such military enthusiasm as I witnessed in Russia during my recent visit." Mr. Wellock mentions a military demonstration by half a million young people of the International Youth Movement, and observes: "If after the enthusiasm and determination I then witnessed, Russia is ever attacked I pity the army that comes out against her, for no capitalist government in the whole world can put an army into the field with a modicum of the enthusiasm possessed by Young Russia. It was very significant."

Thus, while professing peace at Geneva, and submitting proposals that all the nations of the world totally disarm, the Soviet leaders are engaged in the task of exciting military enthusiasm throughout the length and breadth of Russia, and training the youth of the land, girls as well as boys, for war.

In the face of such duplicity, and with full knowledge of what Russia is attempting in China, and, in fact, in all countries where a feeling of unrest prevails, how can the other nations of the world scrap all their armaments, as many, if not most of them, would like to do so? Russia is, in actual fact, the greatest stumbling block to world disarmament, and, notwithstanding all the pious protestations of the Soviet leaders, constitutes the outstanding threat against future peace among the nations.

World's Greatest Tea Drinkers

New Zealanders Serve It Seven Times Every Day

In New Zealand they drink tea seven times a day, according to one of the Canadian Exchange teachers, Miss Luella Derbecker, of Kitchener, Ont. Miss Derbecker stated that although there were no furnaces in the houses, the practice of tea-drinking served to counteract the chill of the rainy season during July and August. Tea before breakfast, tea at breakfast, morning tea at half past ten, tea for lunch, afternoon tea, tea for dinner, and tea for supper was the unvarying procedure. Even the schools, shops and offices served tea at 10.30 in the morning she said.

Reduce the Acid

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour.

Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless, tasteless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention, 50 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggist.

Premier Baldwin Never Contributes To Press

Has Never Been Asked But Hopes He Will Be

That Premier Baldwin occupies a somewhat unique distinction among cabinet ministers in that he has never had a single offer of any kind to contribute to the press, was revealed by Mr. Baldwin in a speech at a luncheon given to Viscount Burnham.

"I might produce something," the Premier said, smilingly, "that if not worth a penny a line might at least be worth a penny a mile," he remarked. When he retired from public life, he added, he would like to feel that one kind hearted person had once made him an offer so that he could see his own stuff in print with his name under it.

MISTAKES MOTHERS MAKE IN CARE OF LITTLE ONES

Many mothers give their children solid foods at too early an age and say proudly that their babies "eat everything that grown up people do." Such a course is almost certain to bring on indigestion and lay the foundation of much ill-health for the little one.

Other mothers administer harsh, nauseating purgatives which in reality irritate and injure the delicate stomach and bowels and at the same time cause the children to dread all medicine.

Absolutely no meat should be given to a child until it reaches the age of 18 months, and then only if approved by the doctor. For medicine, all strong, disagreeable oils and powders should be abandoned and Baby's Own Tablets given instead.

Baby's Own Tablets are especially made for little ones. They are pleasant to take and can be given with absolute safety to even the newborn babe. They quickly banish constipation and indigestion, break up colic and simple fevers and make the cutting of teeth easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Miller's Worm Powders can do no injury to the most delicate child. Any child, or infant in the state of adolescence, who is infested with worms can take this preparation without a qualm of the stomach, and will find in it a sure relief and a full protection from these destructive pests, which are responsible for much sickness and great suffering to legions of little ones.

Requisite On the Farm.—Every farmer and stock-raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. A big fire occurred at Grainger on Tuesday morning, when F. W. Grainger's big barn was burned to the ground. The loss was estimated at about $4500 and $3000 insurance was carried. Besides the barn about 50 tons of feed and a few sets of harness were destroyed. There were also seven head of horses in the barn at the time of the fire and considerable difficulty was experienced in getting them out.

RHEUMATIC PAINS DUE TO THIN BLOOD

Relief Comes Through the Use Of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

The most a rheumatic sufferer can hope for in rubbing something on the swollen, aching joints is a little relief, and all the while the trouble is becoming more firmly rooted. It is now known that rheumatism is rooted in the blood, and that as the trouble goes on the blood becomes still further thin and watery. To get rid of rheumatism, therefore, you must go to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved so beneficial when taken for this trouble. They make new, rich blood which expels the poisonous acid and the rheumatism disappears.

There are thousands of former rheumatic sufferers in Canada, now well and strong, who thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that they are now free from the aches and pains of this dreaded trouble. One of these Mrs. W. F. Tait, McKellar, Ont., who says: "I am one of the willing ones to tell you of the great benefits I received from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After lying in bed for seven weeks suffering untold agony with inflammatory rheumatism, relief finally came through the use of this medicine. I could not move in bed only as they lifted me, and I could only sleep when opiates were given me. The medical treatment I was taking seemed of no avail. Then I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and soon I began to get relief. After taking six or eight boxes the rheumatism was banished and I had never felt better in my life. It is several years since this happened and I have had no return of the trouble since. I may add that I recommended the pills to two of my friends who were suffering with rheumatism and the pills were equally effective in both cases."

Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anaemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, indigestion or nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Small Town Papers

BY FRANK PARKER STOCKBRIDGE
Reprinted by special permission from Saturday Evening Post. Copyright 1928, by the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia.

I wanted to know just how they did make money. Does the modern country newspaper publisher keep accounts like a business man, or does he just guess at his profits, as the old-timers used to do—and usually guessed wrong?

"That's one of the things we are doing in our state and regional press associations," said the Iowa man. "Teaching the country editor how to figure his costs and base his advertising and subscription rates upon them is one of the important items in the work of our organizations. Too many of them are still guessing at costs. In fact, the former president of the National Editorial Association, Herman Roe, recently said that accounting was the weakest spot in the whole rural newspaper field."

"I was at the meeting when Roe said that," put in Bert Mills. "He asked for estimates of the cost of producing a six column, eight-page paper, 2,000 copies. Would you fellows believe that those estimates ran all the way from $75 to $300? The men who were publishing the papers didn't know, most of them, what it cost them. How are you going to sell advertising space at a fair price? And you can't prove that unless you know what it costs you."

"I think I've got the costs pretty well worked out in the Gazette plant, but it took my older boy, fresh from college, to show me where I had omitted a lot of items in my old way of figuring. Now we charge up to costs not only the wages paid and material used but a rental by the week for each machine, high enough to cover depreciation and interest on the investment, a fair rent for the building and everything else we can think of in the way of expense, including my own salary, and then we add a profit at an arbitrary figure on top of all that, to be safe."

I run a sixteen-page, six-column paper, and print a little more than 3,000 copies every week. I average about 1,000 inches of advertising each issue. Figured the way I've just described, it costs about $146 an issue to produce. I get 40 cents an inch for advertising space, or about $400 an issue. That may look as if the Gazette were headed for bankruptcy, but that apparent loss of $46 a week is offset, first, by the 25 per cent. profit, which has been figured into the costs all along the line, so that on advertising alone there is a profit in getting out the paper of $65.50 a week. I draw a salary of $80 a week, which is included in the costs. Those two items come to $6,500 a year, and the subscription revenue runs another $7,500. The interest on the investment, charged also into costs, brings my profits above $15,000 a year, without counting legal advertising, sale of extra copies and such items."

I was pretty well convinced by this time on every point but one.

"I'd hate to try to borrow money at the bank on the strength of that subscription revenue," I suggested.

There was a chorus of laughter from the entire group around the luncheon table.

"Try to subscribe to an up-to-date country weekly without paying cash in advance and see what you get," said one of them. "Cash-in-Advance Club is one of our strongest and most popular organizations. It has taken a good deal of educational effort, both with subscribers and with publishers to establish the principle of paid-in-advance subscriptions, and there are a good many papers still which do not enforce it very strictly. But I should say that a clear majority of the country weeklies now get their money from subscribers promptly, both for original subscriptions and for renewals. The modern farmer has not the aversion to paying out cash that his granddaddy had. He has the cash to pay, for one thing, and he buys machinery and other things for cash, so that it seems natural to him to pay for his paper in cash. And while we think of the old-time editor as taking apples or cordwood for subscriptions, we've found some papers, in the course of our association investigations, which have always enforced the cash-in-advance rule. There's the Southern Standard, for example, which has been published at McMinnville, Tennessee, since 1879 without a break, and which has never sent a copy to a subscriber who wasn't paid up for a year ahead. They get somewhat less than the prevailing rate of $2.50 a year, or five cents a copy, which is now almost the standard rate all over the country and which gives the publisher a run for his money."

"The whole trick is to make the paper so useful and interesting to the local readers that they can't get along without it," said Bert Mills.

"Like the Star Clipper," agreed the man from Iowa. "That's the prize-winning country weekly for 1927-28. One of the things which the National Editorial Association does every summer is to award a prize to the best country weekly. Bert, here, got it one year. Until the 1928 convention, next summer, it's held by a paper out in my state, in a town you probably never heard of, called Traer, in Tama County, Iowa. And what makes it the best weekly paper in the United States, as it has a right to call itself, is the fact that it is so full of local news about local people and events that everybody in its territory just has to read it. Traer has a population of 1,329, but the Star Clipper has a circulation of 3,575—and all paid in advance at two dollars a year. When the N.E.A. committee checked up its circulation it was found that in thirteen townships in the county nine out of every ten farmers were subscribers. Three townships showed 100 per cent. subscriptions."

"That's a real record," said Bert Mills. "They give another award every year, too, for the paper with the best editorial page. It is an up-state New York paper that holds that this year—Jacob Strong's Rhinebeck Gazette. Most of us don't go in very strongly for editorial comment, but the Gazette speaks right out in meeting, about matters of local interest, and has a great influence in Dutchess County."

"I think there's a decided tendency toward stronger editorial expression, as well as toward constructive community service, among country weeklies generally," added the editor from Oklahoma. "That last is another matter which the National Editorial Association is encouraging. At its last convention the association gave a prize to the Clinton County Republican-News, published at St. Johns, Michigan, for the greatest community service, in recognition of its campaigns to raise money for a county hospital, for fireproof vaults for the courthouse and for tuberculosis tests of cattle in the county."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON MAY 13

JESUS ENTERS JERUSALEM

Golden Text: "Behold, thy King cometh unto thee; He is just, and having salvation."—Zechariah 9:9.

Lesson: Mark 11:1-33.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 24:7-10.

Explanations and Comments

Christ's Kingship Openly Proclaimed, verses 1-10.—On the day which we now call Palm Sunday, the last Sunday of His life, Jesus made His triumphant entry of Jerusalem. On approaching Bethphage and Bethany, not far from the city, Jesus bade two of His disciples go into the village opposite, where on entering they would find a colt tied which no man had ever ridden; this animal they were to loose and bring to Him. If questioned as to their action they were to say, "The Lord hath need of him and will return him to you after he has been ridden." The disciple found the colt in a public street fastened to a door, and as they unlocked him were questioned, but upon answering as Jesus had directed they were permitted to take him away. The owner was evidently a friend of Jesus.

They brought the colt and put their loose, outer robes upon him for their Master to sit upon. Others spread their garments on the road, and yet others secured branches of palm trees (John 12:13), and cast them down for Him to ride over. And the crowd that went before as well as the crowd that followed cried, "Hosanna (Save now); compare the acclamation, God Save the King; Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord; Blessed is the kingdom that cometh, the Kingdom of our father David; Hosanna in the highest." The words are from the one hundred and eighteenth Psalm, "The Messianic Psalm," the last one of the five "Hallel Psalms" which were sung by the people as they wended their way around the altar at the great festivals. Their use on this occasion indicated that the people recognized Jesus as the Messiah. "Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem," Zechariah had cried; "behold thy King cometh unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, even upon a colt, the foal of an ass." This prophecy Jesus intentionally fulfilled. The words were prophetic of a peaceful King, not of a warrior. The ass was the animal for labor; the horse was for war. "In reality the ride over the Mount of Olives was Jesus' last attempt to convey to those about Him by symbolic act that which His words had failed to convey, that He had not come to be a conquering warrior or political King, but a lowly Servant and Prince of Peace."—George A. Barton.

An Oil That Is Famous.—Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That is far afield enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

Cute in a Baby-Awful at Three—and it's Dangerous—by Ruth Brittain

Thumb sucking does look sweet in a baby, but it is disgusting in the three-year-old and sometimes it hangs on until fifteen or sixteen! The habit may cause an ill-formed mouth or induce adenoids; and it always interferes with digestion. Pinning the sleeve over the hand; attaching mittens, or putting on cardboard cuffs, which prevent bending the arms at the elbows, are some of the ways to stop the habit.

Another bad habit—irregularity in bowel action—is responsible for weak bowels and constipation in babies. Give the tiny bowels an opportunity to act at regular periods each day. If they don't act at first, a little Fletcher's Castoria will soon regulate them. Every mother should keep a bottle of it handy to use in case of colic, cholera, diarrhea, gas on stomach and bowels, constipation, loss of sleep, or when baby is cross and feverish. Its gentle influence over baby's system enables him to get full nourishment from his food, helps him gain, strengthens his bowels.

Castoria is purely vegetable and harmless—the recipe is on the wrapper. Physicians have prescribed it for over 30 years. With each package, you get a valuable book on Motherhood. Look for Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper so you'll get the genuine.

Think British Envoy Should Be Canadian

British Labor M.P. Suggests Dominion Citizen For Post At Washington

London.—Appointment of a Canadian as principal representative of Great Britain at Washington is a suggestion made in a book, "The Freedom of the Seas," just published by Lt.-Commander J. M. Kenworthy, Labor M.P., and George Young, once attache to the late Lord Bryce, in the British embassy at Washington.

Referring to the naval differences between the two countries the authors state that in their belief the conflicting policies can be reconciled. They continue:

"There is now a new diplomatic channel and democratic contact in the Canadian diplomatic representative and his staff at Washington. Canada is a bond for peace between Great Britain and the United States and her mission in Washington might become a bridge for political confidence and co-operation.

"We might indeed do worse than persuade the Canadian Government to release an important citizen of the Dominion to represent England and the Empire at Washington when next there is a vacancy at the British embassy, and let the foreign office be represented by an official who would be a junior to the representative."

Gen Currie Receives Verdict

Jury Finds Article Criticizing Sir Arthur Was Libellous

Cobourg, Ont.—By a poll of eleven to one, a civilian jury rendered a verdict against W. T. R. Preston, writer of the article which appeared on June 13, 1927, in the Port Hope Guide, entitled "Mons," and against the publisher of the paper, F. W. Wilson. The jury, after four hours' deliberation, found that publication of this article was libellous and they awarded General Sir Arthur Currie, who was the aggrieved party in the suit, damages in the sum of $500. The former commander of the Canadian corps had claimed $50,000.

The trial opened on April 16, in the Ontario supreme court assizes at Cobourg before Mr. Justice Rose and a jury, the hearing of evidence and addresses to the jury lasting well into 14 days. During the course of the testimony the events of the stirring days which closed the campaign in Belgium and France, were gone over by scores of witnesses, including a number whose names have become famous for deeds of gallantry and heroic leadership.

Sir Arthur was represented by W. N. Tilley, K.C., Toronto, and F. W. Wilson by Frank Regan, of Toronto. W. T. R. Preston conducted his own case.

Prepare For Night Flying

Beacons Have Been Ordered For Canadian Air Route

Ottawa.—Night flying will soon be a factor in aviation in Canada, according to plans being formulated by the civil aviation branch, department of national defence, for the first lighted airway in the Dominion, says the Ottawa Journal.

Tenders it is understood are to be called for by the government for five giant beacon lights to be placed at intervals of 35 miles along the south shore of the St. Lawrence River on the air route from St. Hubert aerodrome, Montreal, to Levis, Que. This will form a great part of the air mail route from Rimouski to inland points, which opened for the season on May 5.

Prompt measures were taken to avoid famine in the flooded districts.

Leaves Life Job In Canton

Former Edmonton Man Was Bodyguard For Late Dr. Sun Yat Sen Canton.—Morris Cohen, famous two-gun man from Canada, who served the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen as bodyguard for the last three years of the revolutionary leader's life, has left Canton for an unnamed destination.

Of the polyglot coterie of foreigners who assembled about Dr. Sun's person in Canton—Red Russians, Americans, Germans—this burly free-handed Jewish adventurer is believed to have been the last of any prominence remaining in China. He turned up here six years ago with a letter of recommendation from revolutionary Chinese in Edmonton, Alta., whence Cohen hailed.

When the Kuomintang leader died in 1925, his will stipulated that Cohen should have a life job in the Canton Government's Central bank. This he held, acting as messenger and purchasing agent for Canton officials, until he became involved in the Red uprising of last December. The upshot was his purchase of a one-way ticket from the scene of his six-year phase of his adventurous career.

Washington Greets Fliers

Crew Of Bremen Presented With Distinguished Flying Crosses

Washington, D.C.—The crew of the Bremen was welcomed to Washington as pioneers whose feat symbolized the ever-narrowing distance between the nations of the world.

Coming by train in the early hours of the morning, the German-Irish trio which accompanied the first non-stop flight of an airplane over the North Atlantic from the east, received the Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg's greetings of the nation to supplement the tumultuous welcome they were given in New York City.

The three fliers, Von Huenefeld, Fitzmaurice and Kochl, were greeted as men who had "marked another milestone in the path of man's conquest over the forces of nature."

After Secretary Kellogg had greeted them Ambassador Von Flitzwitz, of Germany, and Hon. Timothy Smiddy, minister of the Irish Free State, stepped forward to offer welcome.

Prominent among those participating in the welcoming ceremonies was Col. C. A. Lindbergh and Eddie Rickenbacker, the U.S. war ace.

Later in the day the Bremen trio received from President Coolidge the distinguished flying crosses awarded them by Congress.

Commencing Work On Peace River Highways

Alberta Ministers Made Inspection Trip Over Proposed Route

Edmonton.—Hon. O. L. McPherson and J. D. Robertson, minister and deputy minister of public works, have returned from an inspection trip over the proposed route of the Peace River Highways. They went as far north as High Prairie, visiting a number of points where road construction details required decision before the season's work begins.

Work on the new highway into the North is to be commenced at once and will be pushed forward as rapidly as conditions will permit during the spring and summer. A working crew has already made camp in the Lesser Slave Lake region, where a considerable amount of clearing is to be done for the new road.

Mr. McPherson is hopeful of better conditions than last year, which in turn will make possible a better construction record for the season.

EGYPT MUST REMAIN UNDER BRITISH CONTROL

London.—"I think the interests of Great Britain in Egypt make it impossible to contemplate the occupation of Egypt by any other power than ourselves," Sir Austen Chamberlain, British foreign secretary, asserted in the House of Commons after making public Britain's reply to the Egyptian government's note announcing its intention not to proceed this session with the assemblies bill to which Britain had objected.

The Egyptian note dispelled for the time being at least the crisis brought about by the Egyptian government's intention to enact the measure and also resulted in the countermanding of instructions which it had previously been thought necessary to give to certain British warships.

"It will always be necessary," Sir Austen declared, "for this and other governments in the future to maintain the principles of the declaration of 1922 and as we forbid other powers to interfere we must also take measures to secure the safety of citizens of those powers as well as our own nationals."

The foreign secretary's statement came in answer to a question by Will Thorne, Labor, Plaistow, who enquired whether Sir Austen thought the declaration of 1922 would stand for ever.

Asks More Financial Help For Settlers

British Welfare Worker Advocates Family Re-Union Scheme

Ottawa.—"Canada must not become another melting pot; we must keep Canada British."

So stated Albert Chamberlain, president of the British Welfare and Welfare League, Toronto, in appearing before the agriculture committee of the House considering immigration problems.

"There ought to be some financial assistance available to help British women and children to join their husbands in Canada, provided they can be taken care of on arrival," continued Mr. Chamberlain.

"There are today thousands of British men living in Canada apart from their wives and children in the Old Country and this is an undesirable condition of affairs for Canada, for the husbands and wives and for the Old Country," he said.

The British government was prepared to financially assist the league in its family re-union scheme. If the Ontario and Dominion governments or either one of them were prepared to share the costs, the British government is ready to pay 50 per cent. of the cost of the scheme.

The league, Mr. Chamberlain said, could bring 50,000 British women and children to Canada annually if the proper financial system was in operation.

Claim Explanation Does Not Satisfy British

Invasion Of West Indies. Ports By U.S. Anti-Smuggling Ships Being Discussed

Washington, D.C.—The controversy between the British and United States governments over violations by the United States prohibition enforcement staff of the Bahamas agreement probably will be carried to President Coolidge.

It is rumored here that Secretary of State Kellogg has informed the treasury department which is in charge of coastguard ships that the British government is not satisfied with the explanation offered of recent invasion of British ports in the West Indies by anti-smuggling ships from the United States and that the whole question will have to be referred to the president and his cabinet.

Executive departments here will neither confirm nor deny the rumors concerning the controversy, nor will the British embassy comment.

New Impetus Being Given To Cattle Raising Industry As a Result Of High Prices

The active demand for Canadian cattle in the United States, which has elevated prices to a height never before reached, together with the prospect of this situation continuing for some time to come, has given an entirely new impetus to the beef-raising industry of Western Canada, for which the outlook a few years ago appeared so gloomy, says a bulletin of the Canadian Pacific Railway. At the same time the realization is steadily taking more general hold among Canadian agriculturists that a great and prosperous future awaits the Dominion in the sheep industry, according to the railroad. There is every justification for an expansion of these two as well as other branches of the live-stock industry, the writer adds.

"Governments and live-stock organizations have been working to effect this," the bulletin continues, "and already the fruits of their efforts are apparent. During 1927 the number of beef cattle in Canada increased by some 20 per cent. over the previous year, and in Western Canada, essentially the home of the beef animal, numbers increased by over 75 per cent. In the same year the number of sheep in Canada increased by about 4 per cent. and in Western Canada by more than 9 per cent. There is every indication that despite heavy sales there will be further increases recorded in the present year, and thereafter steady expansion is to be expected.

"Looking no further than the occupied farms of Western Canada, great opportunity for the expansion of the live-stock industry is revealed. The average farm in this territory is of considerable extent. The average farm acreage in Manitoba is 274 acres; in Saskatchewan, 368 acres; in Alberta 352 acres, and in British Columbia, 130 acres. Forty per cent. of the farms in Manitoba are over 200 acres in extent; 64 per cent. of those in Saskatchewan, 51 per cent. in Alberta and about 9 per cent. in British Columbia. Yet on the average Manitoba farms there are less than 5 beef cattle, and but 5.5 sheep; in Saskatchewan, 1.1 beef cattle, and 1.4 sheep per farm; in Alberta, 3.2 cattle and 6.6 sheep; and in British Columbia, using the number of farms in 1921 which are the latest available, approximately 2 head of beef cattle and 6.8 sheep.

"Even considering the vast tracts given up to pure grain growing, it is very clear that Western Canada farms could be carrying substantially more stock. At the time of the last agricultural census it was disclosed that of all the occupied farms in Western Canada 44 per cent. of the land in Manitoba, 43.13 per cent. in Saskatchewan, 59.83 per cent. in Alberta and 80.97 per cent. in British Columbia was unimproved. A total of 12.93 per cent. in Manitoba, 5.10 per cent. in Saskatchewan, 7.42 per cent. in Alberta and 37.62 per cent. in British Columbia was in woodlot and so unfit for most forms of agriculture until cleared. The remainder of the area of occupied farms, amounting to 27.28 per cent. of the total in Manitoba, 30.06 per cent. in Saskatchewan, 47.66 per cent. in Alberta and 35.72 per cent. in British Columbia, was natural pasture and as such suited to the raising of cattle sheep or other live stock.

"In addition to the wide opportunity existing on the farms of Western Canada for greater engagement in these branches of the live-stock industry on an intensive scale, account must be taken of the larger operations of ranching, which is still an important factor and in several sections an increasing one in the raising of cattle and sheep. A distinct impetus to the ranching industry of Western Canada was given by the Department of the Interior in its amendment to allow of the granting of 21-year leases in Southern Alberta and Saskatchewan and in the railway belt of British Columbia. These Government grazing leases last year totalled 6,262,225 acres, an increase of 154,139 acres over the previous year and an increase in the number of leases of nearly 600.

"It is surprising to find that when Western Canada has so firmly established its reputation as a live stock producer a mere commencement has been made upon the industry, and the scope for development is immense. Circumstances have combined to make the present a propitious time for inaugurating a great program of expansion, and there would appear to be good times ahead for those who will engage in live stock production in the territory, either established farmers and ranchers or newcomers to the country."

The Deadly Iceberg

No Effective Means Yet Found To Brid Seaways Of Menace

Despite all the advances that have been made in trans-Atlantic navigation, no effective means have yet been found of freeing the seaways of dangers from ice. The best that can be done is to warn ships of the presence of ice and the whereabouts of the various bergs.

Attempts are also made during the summer season to destroy some of the icebergs with shellfire. This work is done by a vessel specially commissioned for the purpose and supported jointly by Britain and the United States.

But these measures do not eliminate the danger. Eternal vigilance has to be practised by the captain of every vessel who would successfully avoid the deadly iceberg and bring his ship safely to port.

Speeds Up Work

The horse continues to supply the power needed on most farms, but there are tasks and times, most seasons, when its ally, the tractor, can render valuable service in speeding up the work or getting a job done at the right time.—Farmer's Advocate.

A Distinctive Canadian Spirit Is Developing Which Will Naturally Demand Expression

That there is a distinctive Canadian spirit demanding expression is the firm belief of Frederick Philip Grove, world traveller and author, who addressed the Canadian Club in Toronto recently on "Canada—the Spiritual Awakening of an Individual." Mr. Grove drew upon his experiences for his subject, and he expressed confidence that there was a specific Canadian attitude to life, to the world, to the universe, to God, which demanded utterance. Only by giving this utterance, he said, could Canadians make the cultured, well-educated people of Europe, Asia or Africa realize what they were, and only by giving it utterance could the voice of the Dominion resound through the centuries.

Mr. Grove's experiences in Western Canada includes teaching a school on the prairie attended by foreign-born settlers. Later he received an appointment as principal of a high school in Winnipeg.

Mr. Grove said: "In our Canadian West I have seen old men and women bending over frayed copies of the Bible and other cherished books, their lips moving, their fingers holding the line, spelling out sentences that seemed to express what they felt. And in their eyes I have seen something new; something I have never seen in the eyes of European peasants. I do not know what it is—a sort of hopefulness. I sometimes ask myself whether it was bred by our wider spaces along our coastlines, our higher mountains, crisper air, or something material; and sometimes I think it is bred by the fact that after all it is one of the fundamental desires of man to own the soil on which he stands, and land ownership was beyond their reach in Europe. That Canada has given to them, and thereby freed their spirits."

Dreams of Visiting Old World Countries Come True

Travelling in Europe for about ten dollars a day, putting overseas travel on a par with a normal holiday at home, is made possible for the American tourist by the happy combination of Tourist Third Cabin Class on the magnificent Atlantic fleet of the Canadian Pacific Steamships and the tours arranged in the old world by the Arts Crafts Guild of Chicago. It is shown by the figures released by these companies.

The creation of this new class of ocean travel on Canadian Pacific vessels has made travel possible for many thousands who have been unable to consider fulfilling their hopes, and during the past few years it has become fully established in popularity. The economy effected by this class of ocean passage makes a comprehensive European tour possible for every traveller, who during the Atlantic voyage enjoys surroundings and comforts equal to those until recently associated only with first class accommodation. Staterooms are above the water line, each with hot and cold running water, and the public rooms—card rooms, drawing rooms, smoking rooms, dining saloons,—are commodious and tastefully furnished. Orchestras are carried for special entertainments and dancing. These take place on the broad promenade decks or within doors.

Itineraries ranging from thirty-two to seventy-three days in extent, including the ocean passage, are possible for the traveller under the Continental Collegiate Tours organized by the Arts Crafts Guild of Chicago. The charm of these tours is realized right from the start, for during the thousand mile journey down the mighty St. Lawrence and through the Gulf the boats pass scenery rivaling that of any river trip in the old world for beauty and picturesqueness.

Once overseas there is nothing of importance or interest missed by the tours of the Guild. In England they include the Shakespeare country and London; in the "Low Countries," the best of Belgium and Holland; in Germany, the Rhine and her great centres; in France, Paris—of course—and in the lovely Riviera with Monte Carlo in its midst; in Switzerland, the Alps; to the south the cities of sunny Italy and romantic Spain; and to the north, in the "Land of the Midnight Sun," Norway and Sweden. Everything in fact that the traveller is anxious to see may be visited on these tours.

THERE is nothing that has ever taken Aspirin's place as an antidote for pain. It is safe, or physicians wouldn't use it, and endorse its use by others. Sure, or several million users would have turned to something else. But get the real Aspirin (at any drugstore) with Bayer on the box, and the word genuine printed in red:

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assure the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trade mark.

CHAPTER XXIII.—Continued.

"My dear," said one, "it is our patriotic duty to save every cent. I cut down my cook ten dollars at once, and changed my dressmaker." Her voice fell. "My dear, there's a wonderful German woman on the south side—I will give you her address—and she made me a stunning little afternoon dress, with so much hand-work on it, for ten dollars. Madam Frouchette would have charged thirty-five. She is a positive find. She's frightened to death that she will lose her trade, and so has cut her prices away down. We're keeping it among ourselves, my dear. You know some of the I.O.D.E.'s would be up in arms if they knew. They say we should

Firestone Tread is Scientifically Designed

When Firestone engineers were developing the Balloon Tire they found it necessary to design a tread altogether different from that required by High Pressure Tires.

The Firestone tread was not designed with large, massive projections for appearance or to make plausible sales argument. On the contrary, the projections of the cross-and-square tread are small and the rider strips narrow, permitting the tread to yield to irregularities and cling to the road, giving the greatest non-skid surface. This tough, pliable tread has the wear-resisting qualities that give thousands of extra miles of service and save you money.

Your nearest Firestone Dealer will gladly supply your needs and give you the better service that goes with these better tires.

patronize our own, but, my dear, the German woman has to live."

When Helmi walked wearily back to the "North Star" that night she was beginning to wonder if to bring a child into the world were not the great transgression for which there could be no pardon. Only the thought of the blessed shelter of her room, and the warm-hearted Irish family who had befriended her kept her heart from despair. Mrs. Corbett had not thought it was so terrible. She had praised little Lili, and Rose and Danny were getting marbles now from other children in the block for a look at the child.

The traffic was congested at the corner of First and Jasper. A Blue Line car waited for the rush of passengers homeward bound, and a coal wagon, lumbering past, narrowly escaped a closed motor which had dashed by disregarding the traffic law. A newsboy in an overcoat much too long for him shouted "Evening Journal, all about the suicide."

Two men, waiting to get across, were talking about it. "She took a room at the St. Petersburg . . . left her baby there."

Helmi shuddered and hurried on. She wanted to feel the little warm cheek against her own, and to listen to the regular breathing, and get back the confidence she had lost. There must be someone in this city who would let her work.

The next day Miss Ritchie had an address for her. The lady there wanted someone to come by the day and go home at night. Helmi set out at once, taking a street car to save time. When she arrived she found that the lady had already secured a helper for the day.

After Helmi had gone the lady remarked to her friend that the girl whom Miss Ritchie had sent looked rather pale, and she wished she had given her a street car ticket. The friend advised her not to worry over it—"no doubt a brisk walk would do the girl good."

Helmi walked slowly over the long bridge, whose great iron pillars frowned coldly at her. On the river below men were drawing sleighloads of ice, glistening blue against the white snow. They looked so warm and happy in their fur coats. Helmi stopped for a moment to watch them, but soon hurried on, for it made her dizzy to look down, and yet it drew her back again in a horrible way that made her heart beat sickeningly. She compelled herself to think of little Lili's pink fingers, with their long, tapering nails, and the satiny feel of her little cheek.

Helmi knew there were kind women in the city; there were women like Miss Abbie and Miss Rodgers, and men like Mr. Terry and the Doctor. She would not give up—two days was not long to be looking.

When Helmi got back to the Bureau Miss Ritchie's assistant was there, a young lady with a metallic voice and stiff white collar which seemed to choke her. She motioned Helmi to sit down.

Helmi laid her purse on her knee and leaned back against the wall. Such a weariness came over her that even the hard seat could not prevent sleep. She was awakened by the metallic voice of the assistant and sprang up in confusion. It was near closing time and the seats were empty. Then she noticed that her purse was gone. The blood rushed to her head, and it seemed as if something snapped. She hunted wildly, talking in her own language excitedly.

The metallic voice was saying: "We cannot be responsible for property—you should have held on to your purse—was there much in it?"

"All that I have in the world," said Helmi brokenly.

"Too bad," came from the stiff collar, "but you can't blame us."

Helmi walked down the street empty handed and distraught. She had a desire to tear her hair—to scream—to break something—to kill someone. It couldn't, couldn't, couldn't be—all that she had—her seventeen dollars, her marriage certificate—God could not be so cruel.

A man was speaking at the corner of the street, catching the six o'clock crowd. Helmi could not make her way through the mob, and so found these words beating in upon her through the confusion of street sounds: "Canada calls you, as it has called me. Canada is good enough to fight for—don't fall her now in her need. How would you like to be ruled by Germany? How would you like to bow the knee to Kaiser Wilhelm? Think of our lives here in Canada, where we are free as the air we breathe, with all our wealth of wheat-fields, oil wells, mines and forests, enough for all, enough for ever—yours and mine. Canada, the land of plenty, is our country. Let us fight for it—the land of the maple leaf, where there is room enough and work enough for everyone."

A shift in the crowd revealed the speaker's face. Helmi remembered him—it was Major Gowsett, the man who had been with Colonel Blackwood. Black rage filled Helmi's heart. Oh, the liar! how could he say there is work in Canada for everybody? There's nothing in Canada but heart-break. Clenching her empty hands in an agony of hopeless rage—"He's a liar!" she cried aloud, "don't listen to him."

Someone tapped her arm. "None of that, my girl," said a deep voice.

Looking up, Helmi saw a big policeman shaking his head warningly at her. She turned and ran. Fear gave fleetness to her feet—she dared not look behind—it seemed as if the whole police force were in pursuit. Heavy steps pounded behind her. At the corner of Namas Street a sign in a window glared at her, a sign in black letters on a blue card. Helmi read it aloud in her eagerness, then darted in the door.

"GIRL WANTED" said the sign. Pale and trembling, Helmi approached the desk.

"Do you want a girl? Will you take me?" she said, before she noticed the person who sat there.

A tall, old Chinaman rose from his high stool. "You washee dish, cook, waitee table?" he asked.

"I will do anything," said Helmi; "give me a chance."

"Sure, you nice liddle girl; old Sam give you chance. Want girl for night—seven till twelve every night. Nice liddle parties—lots of nice fellows come eat at old Sam's—like nice liddle girl carry chop suey—makea nice in white apron, liddle cap."

"I'll work hard if you'll give me a chance," said Helmi.

And so it happened that when Major Gowsett, who was recruiting for the Canadian Army, came in after a late meeting the next night for a cup of coffee and a sandwich, he saw Helmi carrying the trays from the kitchen. She was dressed very smartly in her black dress, with white apron and cap, and carried the trays with the old air of aloofness.

Deeply concerned as Major Gowsett was over the dishonoring of the Belgium women—and he spoke of them with deep feeling every night in his recruiting speeches; indeed, with an almost fatherly solicitude—he did not hesitate to tell Helmi's story now to his young officer friend.

"Our haughty looking waitress is a lady with a past—a real purple past," he said, in a low voice. I could swear to that head of hair any place, and that Boadicea manner, though she was not looking quite so haughty nor quite so svelte when I saw her last—she evidently has gotten over her trouble and is back to her old haunts. No decent girl works in a Chinese restaurant at night. Old Blackwood, at Bannerman, had the whole story in a newspaper and shoved it in front of her."

The younger man looked after Helmi as she walked noiselessly past them with her tray of dishes. "She's a good-looking girl," he said, "and

Broke Out in Watery Pimples. Cuticura Healed.

"Eczema broke out in watery pimples on my baby's face. It itched and burned so badly that she scratched, and her face was covered with sore eruptions. When she scratched the eruptions they used to bleed something dreadful. She used to fret and stay awake nights. It caused disfigurement for a while."

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using it I purchased two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and in five weeks she was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Clifford Fancy, Westfield, N. S.

certainly has not the face of a crook."

"Look out Jim," laughed the Major; "Go slow on this girl, she's a wild cat."

"She would need to be," said the young officer, "if she wants to keep straight. The girl is earning an honest living here now, anyway. Why not let her past go?"

But in spite of this rebuke, which made Major Gowsett shrug his beefy shoulders, he took time the next day from his arduous task of recruiting for the 67th Battalion to write to his friend Col. Blackwood, at Bannerman: "I saw the Finn girl again. She is in a Chinese restaurant, working at night," and he underlined the last three words.

Little Helps For This Week

"Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried."—Daniel xii. 10.

A Water Lily

O Star on the breast of the river
O marvel of bloom and grace!
Did you fall straight down from heaven,

Out of the sweetest place?
You are white as the thoughts of an angel,

Your heart is steeped in the sun:
Did you grow in the golden city,
My pure and radiant one?

Nay, nay, I fell not out of heaven,
None gave me my saintly white,
It slowly grew from the blackness,
Far down in the dreary night;
From the ooze of the silent river
I won my glory and grace;
White souls fall not, O my poet,
They rise to the sweetest place.
—Mary Frances Butts.

If we could only think of the pain and the suffering, the unpleasant surroundings and all the things that make living so hard, as the bed out of which the lily hearts may come, and, with our hidden hearts golden and glowing, just climb up slowly through the deep waters, until the soul shall open out all white and lovely under the full sunlight of God, would it not pay for all we have to bear?—Mary Lowe Dickenson.
